Villa Tamarindo at Beachlands is located on unique Barbados beachfront land. This luxury property is approximately 100m south of Holetown in the parish of St. James. The Barbados real estate is also approximately 500m away from the world famous Sandy Lane Hotel. Set within over four and a half acres, the Villas at Beachlands is a design for discerning clients. These clients want a luxury home on a picturesque beachfront in the best location in Barbados.

Villa Tamarindo offers a truly unique opportunity for an individual to own an exclusive West Coast residence unrivalled anywhere else in Barbados. Renowned local architect Larry Warren is the designer of the Villa. The design incorporates traditional West Indian architecture with world class contemporary interiors. The home, which sits on unique Barbados beachfront land, benefits from exceptional indoor and outdoor areas for both living and entertaining.
