HomeLea is a lovely, one-storey family home for sale in Barbados located near to the quaint town of Speightstown. Colleton Gardens is an established residential neighbourhood with attractive homes which sits to the North of the island, in close proximity to Port Ferdinand and Port St. Charles developments.

Built with spacious, flowing interiors in mind, this beautiful family home has an open floor plan from the entrance right through to the spacious deck. Cooling breezes sweep through the property. In addition, the home benefits from an elevated footprint which boasts gorgeous sea views. The large covered deck, open terrace and pool lead down to a private gazebo. The en suite master has a walk-in closet and private access to the deck, while the two additional bedrooms share a well-appointed bathroom. This family home for sale in Barbados also features a store room and washroom facilities at the rear of the garage.
